

IMPRINT

Immigrant Professional Integration

IMPRINT is a national umbrella organization specialized in skilled immigrant integration. IMPRINT:

- Disseminates promising practices
- Creates and distributes resources for practitioners
- Advocates for effective policies to support skilled immigrant workforce integration
- More at: www.imprintproject.org

MEMBER ORGANIZATIONS

Community College Consortium for Immigrant Education www.cccie.org

Upwardly Global
www.upwardlyglobal.org

World Education Services
www.wes.org/gtb

Welcoming Center for New Pennsylvanians
www.welcomingcenter.org

Welcome Back Initiative
www.welcomebackinitiative.org

Policy, Advocacy & Promising Practices

Did you attend a university in your home country?
Make your foreign education count in the U.S.!

Pathways to Success Seminars

2012-2013 Seminars held at:

Bunker Hill Community College, MA

Palm Beach State College, FL

Miami Dade College, FL

Montgomery College, MD

Northern Virginia Community College, VA

City College of San Francisco, CA

Do you advise skilled immigrants who may have attended college or university in their home country?

Come to a training session to learn how to support immigrants' integration into the community and make their foreign education count in the U.S.!

Professional Development Session: Supporting Skilled Immigrants

2012-2013 Professional Development Sessions held at:

Miami Dade College, FL

Montgomery College, MD

Northern Virginia Community College, VA

City College of San Francisco, CA